

Important information regarding: Outbreak of the Zika Virus

Issued: 8th February 2016

This advice applies to customers who are concerned or may be affected by the recent Outbreak of the Zika Virus.

Background

On the 22nd January, the Australian Government advised that a number of countries had been affected by an outbreak of a mosquito-borne virus known as the Zika Virus:

“The Zika virus (ZIKV) is a mosquito-borne disease, which is transmitted by some species of Aedes mosquito, particularly Aedes aegypti.”

“Recent outbreaks in Brazil and French Polynesia have raised concerns that there is a possible association between infection with Zika virus in pregnant women and certain birth defects (including microcephaly, a severe birth defect in newborn babies). The causal link is not yet scientifically proven.”

This information is current to 8th February 2016 and we recommend you regularly check for updates http://smartraveller.gov.au/bulletins/zika_virus.
